

Chip Fuller Biography

Chip Fuller was born and raised in the mid-west (Indiana).

Chip is a former United States Marine. He was promoted to the rank of Sergeant when he was just twenty years old. Chip is a 1984 graduate of the University of Notre Dame. His degree is in Business Administration. During his time in South Bend, he won a monogram playing soccer for the Irish and he was the lead in the Spring Musical-Camelot. Chip is a 20+ year advertising executive who has worked as a Creative Director for the largest ad agencies in the world. He has developed numerous award-winning campaigns for his agency's biggest blue-chip accounts. Chip is a graduate of Chicago's famed Second City Improv Troop. He was the head writer and a lead actor in the show: "Fourteen People and a Guy Named Chip" performed on the main stage at Second City. Chip is a United States Soccer Federation "A" Licensed coach who has enjoyed tremendous success coaching the game of soccer. He has won Championships at the youth, club, high school and college levels.

Chip is a best selling author. He has written more than 40 children's books. Over 4 million of his books have been purchased nationwide. Chip is a playwright who has written three musicals and 4 comedies. He is also a poet, a lecturer and a featured speaker. Finally, Chip has been a husband for 27 years to his high school sweetheart and he is the father of six children. In his "spare-time" Chip enjoys...sleeping.